COPY of a Letter from General Gage, to the Earl of Hillsborough, dated Boſton, October 31, 1768.

(No. 3.)

My Lord,

IN my laſt from New-York, I had the Honour to acquaint your Lordſhip of my Intention to go to Boſton; I arrived here on the 28th Inſtant, and though Lieutenant Colonel Dalrymple had done every Thing in his Power previous to my Arrival to procure Quarters for the two Regiments from Halifax, I found one of thoſe Regiments encamped, and the other lodged in the Market-Hall.

I immediately made Application in Perſon to the Governor in Council, that the Troops might have Quarters in the Public Houſes, as far as they could be accommodated therein, and that Orders might be given for that Purpoſe to the inferior Magiſtrates: And that Out-Houſes, &c. might be prepared for the Remainder; to which I begged a deciſive Anſwer, that I might fall upon Meaſures to put the Troops under Cover, as the Winter approached.

I ſoon found, that the Council had put a Conſtruction upon the Mutiny Act for North-America, which rendered it of no Effect, for the Purpoſes of Marching and Quartering the Troops, viz. "That whatever Place in a Province "the King's Troops ſhould be ordered to, they could not "be Quartered in that Place, 'till all the Barracks in the "Province, however diſtant from it, were firſt filled with "Troops;" from thence the Council inferred, that no Quarters could be had in the Town, till the Barracks in Caſtle Iſland were filled; and further, that the Buſineſs of Quartering, in Inſtance, did not come properly before them, but in the laſt the Public when not only the Barracks in Queſtion, but alſo belonged to houſes ſhould be filled with Troops, which did not belong Magiſtrates to do, and was an Affair that the Barracks by them: It was in vain to ſet forth, that Troops expected Caſtle Iſland would be occupied by the a Conſtruction of in Ireland, or to urge the Abſurdity of the Act; as it abſo Act of Parliament, which annihilated thro' the Province, as impeded the March of the Troops Troops to any Town as the King's Right to order his require them to be ordere Village where his Service might

The next Step to be tak the Magiſtrates, to quarter Troops in the Town, make Application to and a Queſtion aroſe, who we the Magiſtrates: The Select-men refuſed being concerned, declared they were not Magiſtrates, which was agreed to; and it then became neceſſary to apply to the Juſtices the Peace, the Difficulty then was, to find any of the Ju who would act in the Buſineſs of Billeting, and ſome them were to be tried, who gave Aſſurances of their readine to carry on the King's Service, but ſaid it was hard, that the only ſhould be pitched upon for ſuch an Undertaking, and become the Objects of public Odium, when there were ſo many more Juſtices in the Town, to take their ſhare of it. This produced a Reſolution to aſſemble all the Juſtices of the Town, and I attended Governor Bernard to their Meeting, where he required it of them conjunctly, and of each ſeparately, to Billet the Troops in the Public Houſes, according to Act of Parliament: They deſired Time to conſider of a Meaſure which they ſaid muſt be very diſagreeable to the People, and might be attended with bad Conſequences. After ſome Days Conſideration, they returned for Anſwer, that the Act did not require them to Quarter Troops, or Words to that Effect.

I relate the above Tranſactions to your Lordſhip, in a Summary Way, leaving it to Governor Bernard to tranſmit to your Lordſhip, the particular Reſolves of his Council at their ſeveral Meetings on the Subject of providing Quarters, as well as a Copy of the Reſolution of the Juſtices upon the ſame Subject.

There was no Diſappointment in the bad Succeſs of theſe ſeveral Applications; it was known beforehand that they would have no Effect; but it was proper to try, to get the Laws enforced. Governor Bernard therefore agreed in the Neceſſity, of making Preparations to put the Troops under Cover, by hiring of empty Houſes, or other Buildings proper for the Purpoſe, and that a particular Account ſhould be kept of the Expences incurred therein, as alſo of all Neceſſaries required in Quartering, that the Governor may require a Reimburſement of the ſame, from the firſt Aſſembly, that ſhall be ſummoned to meet. But as it may be uncertain where the Expence will fall in the End, I have endeavoured to have every Thing prepared, with as much Frugality as poſſible, and the King's Barrack Maſter is ordered to repair here from Halifax with all the ſpare Bedding, and Utenſils in thoſe Stores, and a large Quantity of Coals, carried thither by the Troops from Louiſbourg.

The Council after ſome Time, gave Governor Bernard a Power over the Barracks at Caſtle Iſland, as well as over a public Building in the Town, called the Manufactory Houſe: The Barracks are ſaid to have been built to hold one thouſand Men, but I find they were only temporary Lodgments for Soldiers during the laſt War, before they embarked, and the ſhort Time they ſtaid, made it immaterial whether they were crowded or not. I find upon Examination they will not hold above one Regiment, upon the preſent Eſtabliſhment, and that by putting 12 Men in a Room 18 Feet ſquare. As for the Manufactory Houſe, there are People in it who have been ſpirited up to maintain Poſſeſſion, and ſome Meaſures were taken, tho' without Effect, to remove them, which occaſioned a little Diſturbance of no Conſequence, and only ſerved to ſhew a moſt obſtinate Spirit of Oppoſition to every Meaſure of Government. When the Regiments arrive from Ireland, one of them will be quartered in the Barracks in Caſtle Iſland, and the other muſt be lodged in the Town, in the ſame Manner as the two Regiments from Halifax.

Caſtle William remains garriſon'd by the Company kept up by the Province, and I find there is a Provincial military Eſtabliſhment ſupported there, under the Command of the Governor of ſome Uſe and Emolument to him and the Lieutenant Governor, upon that Account, and not ſeeing any abſolute Neceſſity for it, I have not interfered in any Matters concerning the Fort, or inſiſted on putting a Garriſon of the King's Troops into it. But if the King ſhould incline to make any Alteration in the Diſpoſitions of his Forces, by ſtationing one or two Regiments in this Province, for the Time to come, his Majeſty may think it right to put Caſtle William into the Poſſeſſion of his own Troops; but as in that Caſe, I apprehend the Province would grant no Funds to maintain it, the Expence thereof will fall upon the Crown. The Fort may be made to contain two or three Companies of Foot, and a Detachment of the Royal Regiment of Artillery; but as for the Barracks near it, ſituated on a ſmall Iſland, where there is not room for Troops to move, and at ſuch a Diſtance from the Town of Boſton, they will not anſwer any Deſign or Purpoſe of ſtationing Troops there for the Service of the Town. And if any Number of Troops ſhould be fixed in this Province, I would take the Liberty to propoſe, that Barracks ſhould be built for them within the Town, on a vacant Spot called Fort-Hill, an advantageous Situation, whereon a Fort formerly ſtood; and Governor Bernard tells me it belongs to the Crown. A new Fort may hereafter be erected there, if his Majeſty's Affairs ſhould require it.

Every Art and Evaſion has been tried by the major Part of the People of every Degree, to force the Troops to quit the Town for want of Quarters, whilſt thoſe, who may have acted or made known their Sentiments in Favour of Government, declared they durſt not ſtay in the Town, but muſt remove with their Families and Effects, if the Troops ſhould leave it. When the Houſes were ready to receive the Troops, the Officers were threatened with the Clauſe of the Mutiny Act againſt Officers, who preſume to take upon themſelves to quarter Troops, &c. and to prevent their being put to any Trouble on that Account by perverting the Act in that particular, as had been done in ſo many others, Governor Bernard gave a particular Warrant to a Commiſſary, againſt whom no Action could lye, to quarter the Soldiers in the Houſes fitted up for their Reception. I would take the Liberty, my Lord, to repreſent, that the Clauſe in Queſtion is by no Means calculated for the Circumſtances of this Country, where every Man ſtudies Law, and interprets the Laws as ſuits his Purpoſes, and where the Meaſures of Government are oppoſed by every Evaſion and Chicane that be cashiered by the Management of two Juſtices of the Peace, the beſt of them the Keeper of a paltry Tavern, who ſhall find Evaſions to diſobey the Clauſes of the Mutiny Act, which they diſlike, and to pervert the Senſe and Meaning of others to ſerve their Deſigns againſt him, and unhappily it might be found in ſome Places, that thoſe who ſhould reverſe iniquitous Convictions of Juſtices of the Peace, were no better than the Juſtices who ſhould have granted the Certificates of Conviction. I troubled his Majeſty's Secretary at War ſome Time ago with ſome very unwarrantable Proceedings againſt an Officer, on Account of the Clauſe in Queſtion, which happened to the Southward.

After other Methods had been tried to get the Troops away, I received an Addreſs from a Number of Gentlemen, Members of the Council, in which they aim at juſtifying the People againſt many Miſrepreſentations of their Conduct, blaming the Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, and begging the Troops may be withdrawn from the Town. I have the honour to tranſmit to your Lordſhip the Addreſs and Anſwer thereto.

Thoſe who would juſtify or rather palliate the Proceedings of the People here, complain, that they have been groſſly miſrepreſented, and every little Diſturbance that has happened, been magnified into dangerous Riots; that the Diſturbance in March was trifling, that of the 10th of June was occaſioned ſolely by the Imprudence of the Commiſſioners: They excuſe the Reſolves made at the Town Meetings, by attributing them only to the extravagance of a few mad People, and aver that the Convention was called with no other intent, than to take proper Meaſures, to preſerve the Peace and Tranquility of the Province.

I am to obſerve upon the above, that according to the beſt Information I have been able to procure, the Diſturbance in March was trifling, that conſidering what had happened reſpecting Seizures, the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms had Reaſon to Act as they did, reſpecting the Seizure which occaſioned the Riots on the 10th of June which was conſiderable; and tho' I do not find that they were, at that time perſonally attacked, yet the Aſſault upon ſome of their Officers, and the Threats daily thrown out againſt themſelves was certainly a ſufficient Reaſon to make them apprehenſive of Danger to their own Perſons. Whether any harm would have actually happened to them, had they remained in the Town, it is not poſſible to judge. With reſpect to the Reſolves procured by ſome mad People at the Town Meetings, thoſe mad People have governed the Town and influenced the Province, a very long Time, and after publiſhing their very dangerous Reſolves, in the Town Meeting of the 13th of September laſt, carried the Motion for convening Deputies from the ſeveral Towns; and the Deputies convened accordingly. I ſhall only obſerve on this, that their Intentions were ſuſpicious, and that I am happy, the Troops from Halifax arrived at the Time they did.

The Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms are ſtill in Caſtle William, and upon being aſked about their return to Boſton, one of them ſaid, there were Troops now to ſupport them, but deſired to know if there was any, or what Civil Officer, who would undertake to aſk the Aſſiſtance of the Troops, if there ſhould be Occaſion for it. The Governor and Lieutenant Governor were preſent, but neither could be anſwerable that any Civil Officer would undertake it.

Your Lordſhip will naturally imagine that ſince the Troops are here to ſupport the Dignity of Government, and a due Execution of the Laws, that the Powers of Government are reverted into the Hands, where the Conſtitution has placed them, and that the Civil Officers would immediately avail themſelves of ſo good an Opportunity to reſtore Affairs to their proper Order, and put the Laws in Execution, againſt thoſe who ſhould dare to violate them: This is not yet the Caſe, and it is plainly ſeen even among the few Magiſtrates, of whom it is ſaid, that they have a real wiſh, and deſire to ſupport Government, and do their Duty, that there is a fear of acting contrary to the general Sentiments of their Fellow Citizens, and a deſire to maintain a certain degree of Popularity amongſt them, which prevents them from being particular in the Execution of their Offices. All now hoped for is, that things being in a more quiet ſtate than they were, the violent Temper of the People will abate in a little time, and their Minds be more compoſed, when the Magiſtrates may do their Duty with leſs fear of becoming obnoxious to the People. The Town has been under a kind of Democratical Deſpotiſm for a conſiderable time, and it has not been ſafe for People to act or ſpeak contrary to the Sentiments of the ruling Demagogues; and ſurpriſing as it may appear, thoſe Fears are not yet annihilated.

If it is aſked, why the Governor does not turn all the Juſtices of Peace out of Commiſſion, and put others in, who will do their Duty? It is anſwered, that the Governor can neither appoint Juſtices or turn them out, but by Conſent of Council; and that the Council oppoſes every thing propoſed to the Governor, for the Service of Government, that is unpopular.

From what has been ſaid, Your Lordſhip will conclude, that there is no Government in Boſton, there is in truth very little at preſent, and the Conſtitution of this Province leans ſo to the Side of Democracy, that the Governor has not the power to remedy the Diſorders which happen in it.

I have the Honour to be with the greateſt Reſpect, Regard and Eſteem, my Lord, Your Lordſhip's moſt Obedient and moſt humble Servant,

THO. GAGE.

BOSTON, April 10.

THE accounts we have from [illegible] to American affairs, are in general, That though there be no immediate proſpect of redreſs, yet that the wiſhed for period, it is thought, is nearer than many imagine; for it is obſerved, that the opinion, which had but too generally prevailed, of raiſing taxes on America, ſeems given up by many, from a perſuaſion of its being erroneous; and by others, as a meaſure that will not anſwer the intended purpoſe. That the declaratory act, it is not likely that any miniſter will hereafter make uſe of it to the purpoſes of Charles Townſhend; and that that burthen, it is believed, will ſoon be removed. That the preſent oppoſition to an immediate repeal of the late revenue act, ariſes from the offence taken at its being inſiſted on with threats from this ſide, which is conſidered by ſome of our zealous friends in parliament, as an improper meaſure, and inclines them leſt to countenance an immediate redreſs, though they have it warmly at heart, to be done in, what they call, "a due time." That, however, it is thought, it will be effected; and that the continuation of a prudent and temperate conduct, will be the moſt ſure means of accelerating it. That nothing has added to the difficulty of this work, more than the merchants of one province having ſent their orders conditionally, at the ſame time that ſome of their neighbours are determined to have their goods at all events. That this, with advices from reſpectable characters on this continent, that a conſiderable part of it cannot long ſubſiſt without ſupplies from England, had very much increaſed the fears of many in that reſpect, and raiſed in others the opinion, that if ſuch a trial of ſtrength is ever to be made, it may as well be done now as at another time, eſpecially as it is imagined that our markets are ſo overſtocked with goods, that giving us time to conſume them will ultimately be advantageous to England.

April 17. Wedneſday laſt his Majeſty's ſhip Roſe, ſailed from this port: There now remains in this harbour only the Romney and Mermaid ſhips of war, and one or two armed cutters.

We hear from Wrentham, that laſt week died there Mrs. Margaret Cazneau, in the 98th year of her age. She was born at Rochelle, and was one of the refugees who left France in 1686, when Lewis XIV. revoked the famous edict of Nantz, by which impolitic ſtep his proteſtant ſubjects were debarred the free exercize of their religion, and 50,000 of them were obliged to quit the kingdom and embarked for England, where they were hoſpitably received by James II. but freſh troubles breaking out in England ſhortly after, ſhe with a number of others, left that kingdom and came to America. Notwithſtanding the extreme hardſhips ſhe ſuſtained in the infant ſettlement of this country, ſhe enjoyed a remarkable ſtate of health till within a few months of her deceaſe, and perfectly remembered the arbitrary proceedings of that unparalleled incendiary Governor Androſs, and the diſturbances conſequent thereon. There are now living of her poſterity 57 children, grand children, and great grand children.

"Adminiſtration avail themſelves of every appearance of want of union in the colonies, and have plumed themſelves much upon the refuſal of Pennſylvania and the ſouthern colonies to come into the agreement not to import goods. But however little proſpect there may be of relief from the preſent applications here the colonies have no reaſon to deſpair; their ſafety is with themſelves. Induſtry, frugality, attention to their own true natural intereſt, and prudent conduct, will eventually render them ſuperior to all oppoſition, fruſtrate the ill effect of the preſent miſguided policy of this country, with reſpect to them, and in the end ſet us all right."

Extract of a Letter from Cape-Nicola-Mole, March 12.

"We have no News at this place, and know but little of what is done in any other part of the world. Moſt of the French troops here are ordered to Port au Prince, to keep the inhabitants there in order, as they refuſe to pay obedience to certain new laws which they think unconſtitutional."

April 24. A perſon in this town laſtly had a child baptiſed by the name of Raschal Paola.

The resolutions of the assembly of New-York in November last, when received in England, gave great offence to the ministry, and upon reading them the merchants there were advised to make no further representations in favour of the Americans.

Extract of a Letter from a gentleman in London, Feb. 26.

"One of your friends in the house called for the nett produce of the new duties throughout the colonies, and it did not appear they had produced one shilling: That the expence of collecting was too great for the income. The Attorney-general declared there was no treason nor misprison of treason in the papers now before the house: Which papers are the grounds of all the proceedings."

We learn by letters from London, by the last vessels, That the agents for our colonies were determined to petition the House of Commons for the repeal of the late revenue acts: We learn further, that there was no design in the ministry to put the resolves passed by the two Houses into execution, by advising his Majesty to issue a special commission for trying treason committed in the colonies (if there had been any such committed) in England.—That it was asserted in the Commons in the course of the debate upon these resolutions, that such a commission never would or could consistent with the acts of the crown, be issued,—this was peremptorily and positively asserted, and the crown-lawyers called upon to an answer it; and that we may depend on the acts being repealed next session by the ministry themselves, though they would not consent to have it done this session—so that it will be necessary to pursue our schemes of œconomy, industry, and manufactures, and persevire in our resolutions of non-importation.

On the 14th of March a seizure of twenty-eight hogsheads of foreign rum was made at New-London, and deposited in the store of Mr. Nathaniel Shaw, jun. but we hear that on the night of the 18th following, the said store was broke open, and the rum in a clandestine manner taken away by persons unknown.—Governor Pitkin has published a proclamation offering a reward of thirty pounds for discovery of the persons concerned in the theft, and for discovery of the rum only, a reward of twelve pounds, lawful money.

Tuesday last an officer's command of the military set out from this town for Portsmouth, in New-Hampshire, to bring some deserters from thence.

The merchants and traders of this town met on Friday last, and appointed a committee consisting of seven gentlemen, to examine the manifests of the cargoes of the vessels lately arrived or that may arrive this spring from any parts of Great-Britain, and to take such other steps as they may think necessary to determine, whether there have been any goods imported contrary to the late agreement of the merchants, and by whom, and report at the adjournment of this meeting. And also, to make enquiry, whether any goods contrary to said agreement have been imported from the other colonies, and by whom, and to make report of the same also at the adjournment.——The merchants meeting stands adjourned to Thursday the 27th inst.

NEW-PORT, (Rhode-Island) MAY 1.

By a gentleman from Nantucket, we are informed, that there have arrived at that port, within ten days, four brigantines and two schooners from London, in which there were not more goods brought than would load a common canoe, excepting a few articles for the fishery. To the honour of the merchants of Nantucket, it ought to be observed, that, notwithstanding, they gently entered into one engagement not strictly adhered according to such agreement; and that their not importing goods is not owing to their want of credit in England, but to their voluntary determination religiously to govern themselves according to the agreement of their brethren in Boston and other parts, for supporting the liberty of this much abused country. An example this worthy the imitation of every man in North-America, who either desires to be free himself, or leave his posterity so: And he who will not follow it as far as possible, without involving himself in absolute ruin, deserves to have his name engraven on an adamantine statute of slavery to be handed down, with contempt, to the latest ages of America.

We are informed that a vessel from Bilboa, bound to Marblehead, laden with salt, was boarded last week, near Cape-Ann, by the lieutenant with other hands belonging to a man of war, in order to impress the men; the sailors went into the hold to secure themselves; the lieutenant went to the hatchway and ordered them up, but they refusing to comply, he fired a pistol into the hold loaded with powder only, which not having the desired effect, he fired another loaded with a ball, and wounded one of the men in the arm, and then jumped into the hold, swearing he would drive them up; but one of the sailors having a harpoon in his hand, desired him to keep his distance, which he did not regard, but advanced forward, upon which the sailor threw the harpoon at the lieutenant and cut his jugular vain or windpipe, which put an end to his life in less than five minutes. The vessel was carried to Boston and anchored under the stern of a man of war; and the man who threw the harpoon is to be tried for his life: But self-defence being the first law of nature, he will doubtless be cleared.

These Facts the Publisher may be allowed to prove for public Good, consistent with all "his religious Professions," and without infringing upon any Branch of "the Litany"—but it is not his Design to follow that POLE CAT† through all the Filth exhibited in his scurrilous Performance——The JUDGE's Attempts, his last Hopes, are, as every Body foresaw, "to bury Truth among Rubbish"—the Publisher of the Extracts will continue strictly to adhere to the former, as the Pearl of great Price, and leave the latter as an Addition to the Treasures of a LUDICROUS, UNJUST and INCORRIGIBLE JUDGE.

Some Persons say the only proper Answer to all that the JUDGE has scribbled, foreign from the Subject Matter of the EXTRACTS, should be the Discipline of NEW-MARKET, but even that Sort of Correction—admitting he had not secured himself like the Goat in the Fable—would in the Publisher's own Opinion be almost too great an Instance of Condescention to him, and therefore that Enthusiastic Hero need not run-away again, upon any future accidental Meeting in the Street.

Any person inclinable to purchase either of the above tracts of land, must apply to the subscriber near Ponpon, before the 1st of December, 1769, for particular reasons.

ANDREW M'CULLOUGH.

RUN-AWAY from the subscriber, in St. Stephen's parish, the 25th of April last, a mustee fellow named CYRUS, a good cooper, about 36 years old, middle sized, well made and strong, a little bow leged, very sensible and artful, is supposed to be harboured in St. John's parish, among his relations at Mrs. Monck's, Mrs. Laba's or Mr. Job Marion's. Whoever apprehends the said fellow and delivers him to the subscriber, or to the warden of the work-house in Charles-Town, shall receive a reward of TWENTY POUNDS currency.

CHARLES RICHBOURG.

MANY person that constantly supplies the LOWER-MARKET of Charles-Town, with Meats, &c. think themselves injured by the exactions of the Clerk of said market, who says he has acted agreeable to orders received from former Commissioners, in demanding two shillings and six-pence stallage for a quarter of meat the second day, which remained unsold the preceding day, for which stallage has been already paid. ALSO, in demanding two shillings and six-pence for effects as vegetables, &c. laid on the market ground. FARTHER, by his neglect of demanding tickets from negroes, who sells for perhaps many weeks together, which gives the negroes opportunities of carrying stolen goods frequently to market, and naturally occasions a delay or indifference in the master's writing tickets each time. So it sometimes happens that when a demand is made and no ticket appearing, the proper effects of the master are seized and sold. AGAIN, by the Commissioners allowing a town butcher or butchers, who shall purchase large flocks in the country, to occupy stalls in this market, kill and sell twelve or fifteen creatures in one morning, and who residing in town takes early possession of stalls, by which means a person from the country, exposed to the night-dew and cold, in conveying his own bred calf, lamb, or hog, is excluded from these stalls, if he cannot arrive timously in the morning, and get a prior possession. Ever since the former market was built, two shillings and six-pence have been daily paid by each person for the use of a stall, and on Saturdays for mornings and afternoons five shillings, and frequent it is that two or three persons are necessitated to agree and use one stall on the same day, yet each is compelled to pay his two shillings and six-pence, so that the annual amount for a long term of years have been very great. Yet the Gentlemen Commissioners for the time being, invested with discretional powers, now find it expedient to demand two shillings and six-pence per head for every calf, lamb, hog, &c. brought to a stall, and because some persons have refused to pay the Clerk more than two shillings and six-pence for two creatures laid on one stall, an immediate seizure and public sale have been made of their meat. Two shillings and six pence, as formerly, would still be chearfully paid for the use of a stall by every person, and as there is not an inclination in any person who supplies the market to be litigious, it is humbly requested that the Gentlemen Commissioners will furnish the public, if they please, or a few persons only, who would gladly be satisfied, what the yearly income of the LOWER-MARKET for fifteen or more years past, and particularly what the returns of the Clerk to them for a few years last past, have been; also of the total disbursements for purchase of land, building the market, and all other necessary outgoings, with the ballance on either side, which doubtless have been transmitted from one annual set of Commissioners to the present: This obliging compliance may possibly evince the necessity of paying chearfully not only two shillings and six-pence per head at present, but perhaps of five or fifteen shillings, as the present or future Commissioners may judge expedient. But unless such demonstration is given, it being known that about one thousand six hundred pounds has been collected in one year by the Clerk; and whilst the Commissioners persists in exercising their boasted power in the present conceived impositions, until an Assembly is formed, to which recourse will then be had, all persons that supplies the market, are resolving to be unanimous in refraining sending any meats to said market, from and after the Eighth day of June next, and to continue such witholding until the Commissioners shall find it necessary either to give a reason for the present demand, or otherwise order the Clerk to demand only two shillings and six-pence for the use of a stall as formerly.

ALL persons who are indebted to the estate of Mr. Moses Audebert, late of Charles-Town, Taylor, are desired to discharge the same immediately, and those to whom the estate is indebted, are desired to send in their accounts properly attested, to
